

hearing testimony from the following witnesses: Senator Smith and Gruening, who testified on behalf of himself and Senator Bartlett; Carl T. Mumick, National Association of Home Builders; Robert A. Holloway, National Association of Real Estate Boards; Miss Fern M. Colborn, of New York, and Mrs. Frances McMahon, of Chicago, both representing National Federation of Settlement and Neighborhood Centers; Miss Frances Levenson, National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing; Carmen Blough, American Institute of CPAs; Mrs. Vera Wolman, National Consumers League; Alex Dickey, National Farmers Union; Samuel J. Lefrak, president, the Lefrak Corp.; Roland Boyd Wherry, Housing Association; E. W. Carmack, a Wherry Housing owner, Tennessee; and John Haas, Metropolitan Association of General Improvement Contractors.

Committee announced that it will begin executive consideration of pending housing proposals on Friday, January 30.

NOMINATIONS

Committee on Finance: Committee, in executive session, ordered favorably reported the following nominations: T. Graydon Upton, to be Assistant Secretary of the Treasury; Dana Latham, to be Commissioner of Internal Revenue; William L. Mitchell, to be Commissioner of Social Security; and Donald Maginnis, to be Comptroller of Customs, with headquarters at New Orleans.

DISARMAMENT

Committee on Foreign Relations: The Disarmament Subcommittee began a series of hearings, with testimony in a morning session on the subject of present Geneva negotiations on suspension of nuclear weapons tests and related arms control policies, and a report on the recent series of nuclear tests and an evaluation of proposed control system. Witnesses heard were Philip Farley, Special Assistant to the Secretary of State for Disarmament and Atomic Energy; Jones Fisk, member, President's Science Advisory Committee; Carl Romney, an Air Force seismologist; and Leonard M. Murphy; and Dr. Dean S. Carter, both of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

In an afternoon session subcommittee heard testimony on the subjects of Soviet nuclear policies on arms control and defense, Soviet missile development in relation to measures to guard against surprise attack, and data on Soviet policies regarding regional arms control measures. Witnesses heard were Dr. Herbert Scoville, Jr., John S. Warner, and Arthur E. Smith, all of the CIA.

Hearing continue Friday, January 30.

EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION

Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce: Committee concluded its hearings on S. 12, to expedite the utilization of television facilities in public schools, colleges, and adult training programs, with testimony favoring its enactment from William Harley, president, National Association of Educational Broadcasters; William Friday, president, Consolidated University of North Carolina, Raleigh-Durham; William Brish, superintendent, Washington County schools, Hagerstown, Md.; Richard Hull, Ohio State University; Robert Kneipp, representing the D.C. Commissioners; Dr. Carl F. Hansen, Superintendent of D.C. Schools; and Dr. Roland Kirks, D.C. Board of Education.

LABOR-MANAGEMENT LEGISLATION

Committee on Labor and Public Welfare: Subcommittee on Labor, in executive session, ordered favorably reported to the full committee an original resolution authorizing a full and complete study of the provisions of the National Labor Relations Act and the Labor-Management Relations Act, and authorizing expenditure of $20,000 in connection therewith.

Subcommittee held hearings on S. 505, proposed Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959, with testimony from Andrew J. Biemiller, legislative director, accompanied by Albert Wohl and Thomas Harris, all of the AFL-CIO.

Hearings continue tomorrow.

COMMITTEE AUTHORIZATIONS

Committee on Rules and Administration: Committee held executive hearings to hear the chairmen of several Senate committees, and other Senators, testify with regard to resolutions authorizing funds for activities of their committees or subcommittees.

Committee will hold an executive session tomorrow to consider these resolutions.

INVESTIGATION

Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field: Committee continued its hearings with respect to such activities of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and had as its witnesses John Findlay and Martin Uhlmann, both of the committee's staff; Seymour S. Goodman, New York State Insurance Commission; Herbert L. Hutner, Northeastern Life Insurance Co., New York; and Martha Lucas, Lucas Furniture Co., Chicago.

Hearings continue tomorrow.